the game too much to be of any benefit. Neither Dolan nor Holbert played, both being laid up for repairs to damaged fingers. Frank Denny, of the Princeton college nine, attended to right field. His fielding was good but his batting was poor. He struck out every time he went to the bat. McKeivey played on third. Williamson caught in due style and without an error. These clubs play again this afternoon. The score of yesterday's match is as follows:

Could it have been Frank's brother James?

The Braddocks club will play this afternoon, on their grounds, a picked nine selected by Capt. W. B. Battelle, of the late Hazlewood club, and consisting of the following players: Thomas McTighe, pitcher; James Denny, catcher; Davy Johns, 1st base; W. B. Battelle, 2d base; Willie Johns, 3d base; Frank Denny, short stop; Cane, centre field; Ed. Cowan, right field; Keogh, left field. Six of the above players are from the old Hazlewood club, Jas. Denny is from the Xanthas and Frank Denny and Cane are from the Iron City.

THE "Liberty Star" base ball club of the East End has been organized for the ensuing season. Following are the officers: President and Treasurer, Nicholas Leech; Secretary, W. A. Kelley; Manager, Wm. Deems; Captain, James Denny. The other members are Frank Denny, Alex. Sprague, Wm. Murbach, Florence Tomer, Homer Edwards, Fred. Sexterman, Butler Case, T. D. Wilson and Wm. J. Totten. The uniform will consist of white shirt with monogram in red, white pants, red stockings and white flannel hat with blue trimming. The grounds will be on Lincoln avenue.

Mel Jacobus—" Fellows, we did win the ball championship in the good old days, and did not need anybody to help us to win it, as we are told we did in the game to-day. I am glad to see Jim Denny, of our old team, here to-night. He was awfully glad to see us win that game this afternoon, and, by the way, he says he is never, no never, going to miss another '77 dinner. I am very glad indeed that 'Sarah' Wigton has been called upon early in the evening. I suppose we will hear later from him those remarks he used to make in eulogy of his boarding-house. They have asked me to respond to this toast when they ought to have called upon Billy Smith, the best preacher we ever had. But as I have been called upon I want to say one thing, things are changing a great deal in religious matters to-day. Minor things we used to believe many years ago, I think we do not believe in the

Francis H. Denny.

Francis Herron Denny, 59 years old, died Tuesday in his summer home, York Harbor, Me. He was a son of the late James O'Hara and Margaret Stevenson Denny, and was born in Pittsburgh. He was educated at Princeton. Twelve years ago he married Mary C. Speer, daughter of the late Charles E. Speer, former president of the First National bank of Pittsburgh. Mr. Denny was once a director in that institution. Besides his widow he leaves two brothers, Henry S. and James O'Hara Denny. The body will be brought to Pittsburgh.
