Ashes of the Late Richard Southam Interred at London

The ashes of Richard Southam, who passed away on August 19 at Altadena, Cal., in his 84th year, were laid to rest in Woodland cemetery in London, Ont., yesterday afternoon, the committal services being conducted by Dean N. F. Tucker. Funeral services had been conducted at Pasadena, Cal., in All Saints' church on August 22.

He was the son of the late William Southam, pioneer settler in Ontario, and was born in London, Ont., 84 years ago. His early training was received in the city of his birth, where he established a printing business.

In his younger days he was a well-known athlete and a member of the Tecumseh ball team.
