JIMMY BARTON, manager of the Hamilton club in the Ohio State League, writes that he has his club well up in the race, and he thinks he will stay there throughout. Barton is well pleased with the work of Roy Ashenfelter, a local southpaw youngster whom the writer signed for him early last winter. He thinks he will be the sensation of the league. Barton adds that Gilligan and Fox, last year with Erie; Decker with Youngstown, and Johnson with New Castle, last year, are playing fine ball. Barton managed New Castle last season.

and combat of the series with the Indians.

The word has gone about the camp that Mike Kelley will try out a left hander, Ray Ashenfelter, in the final game of the series tomorrow. The Blues haven't had a taste of southpawing for a long time and they're voting strong for Mr. Ashenfelter. Even Tom Downey is pulling for Ashenfelter to start the game. Thomas Charles never has formed any great attachment to lefthand pitching, but he's willing to take a chance on any guy by the name of Ashenfelter.

Two More Whales Go

Beard and Ashenfelter Are Handed Blue Envelope by Boss Joe Tinker.

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK., April 7.—Two more of Joe Tinker's Chicago Federal League recruits were handed the blue envelope today.

The manager informed Guy Beard and Ray Ashenfelter that it would be impossible for him to carry them this season. Both are pitchers who are not taken from Organized Baseball, Beard being from Princeton, Ill., and Ashenfelter from near Pittsburg. The two young pitchers will be shipped to their homes from here tonight.

Batteries—Stevens, Ainsworth and Miller; Loe-dell and Martin and Liable.

CANTON, Ohio, June 3.—Canton showed today for the third successive game, that southpaws are immune facing its batsmen, for Ashenfelter was invincible, Springfield winning, 4 to 1.

Score: Springfield ..... 1 1 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 4 10 1
Canton ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 4 1

Batteries—Ashenfelter and Blackburn; Masters and Texter.

Pitcher Ashenfelter has been recalled from Springfield by Indianapolis. He was the leading southpaw of the Springfield club and noted for his control.

"Red" Ashenfelter, who was a member of the Pittsburg Fed team last year, has been working out with them for several days. Ashenfelter has not been signed but the Jeannette boy may be found wearing a Federal uniform before the season is far progressed. Whether or not he will be a member of the Pittsburg team cannot be stated at this time. Ashenfelter is a left hander. He has been working hard and says that his arm never felt better. As the Federal is shy on left-handed pitchers the chance of securing Ashenfelter will probably not be passed up.
