After leaving Superior, Burgwald and his brother Ted finished the season with Winnipeg last year. Tony hit .270. He is a cleanup stickler and hit for 171 total bases. Berger, hitting .343 and third in the list, registered only 163 total bases. Ted Burgwald is not much of a hitter but is a crack infielder and in this department has it on his brother by a considerable margin. Brautigan writes that he does not expect any trouble in lining up a first division team for Superior. Brautigan is working at Minneapolis and will quit Saturday night of this week and come to Superior the following week.		The Fargo Forum and Daily Republican 20 Apr 1916, Thu - Page 3 of the players. Ted Burgwald, a shortstop and a twin brother of Tony Burgwald, reported to Brautigan yesterday morning. Burgwald came from Chicago where Tony is also located. He told Brautigan that his brother is tied up in a court case and would come to Superior as soon as he is able to get away. Tony is a jurymen, Ted says.

Tony Bergwald, well known to baseball fans of other years, has been selected manager of Huntington's new ball club, according to an announcement last night. Way back in 1908 when Huntington was making baseball history in the old I-O league, Tony was a favorite here, and since that time his many friends have been following with interest his career in the baseball world.

Leaving Huntington in 1909, he spent that season and the season of 1910 with the Clinton, Ill., club of the Illinois-Missouri league, being drafted at the end of the season of 1910, by the New York Giants. Because of conflicting interests he was unable to abide by the draft and was later sold to the Springfield, Ill., club of the Three-I league, playing with this club during the seasons of 1911 and 1912. In 1913 he played with the Chicago club of the now defunct Federal league, going to the Central association in 1914 following the closing out of the Federal league.
