Al Decker (Ole), the local outfielder, who hit over 300 in the Ohio State League, has made a great hit with the people of New Britton in the East. Decker is one of the old school players, and started out with Lefty Geyer, Red Dooin and Ambrose Puttmann.

Pie Decker, the well-known outfielder, is back from New Britain and is a free agent. He would like to sign with some good club, and will very likely go with the United States League team.
