To Play Exhibition Games.

CHARLEROI, PA., April 21.—At least two exhibition games will be played by the Indianapolis Federal League club during its training season in Charleroi, according to present plans. Manager E. H. Sackville of the Washington Independent team has written Manager "Bill" Phillips to arrange a game and he will be accommodated. A game will be played between Indianapolis and the Charleroi Independents for the benefit of the Charleroi playgrounds. Today the first players reported, those coming in being "Bill" France, pitcher, of West Middletown; Barum, an outfielder, of Carnegie; Miller, an outfielder, of Pittsburgh; Durrell, a catcher, of Vandergrift, and Sweeney of Monessen, who will try out as a pitcher.

KNOLL SECURES NEW BACKSTOP

Austin Durrell, one of Bill Phillips' mainstays at Indianapolis this year has been secured by the local management and reported to Manager Knoll Thursday morning. He will be in uniform at the park Thursday afternoon and may be used in the third game with the Reapers.

Durrell comes highly recommended by Phillips and has been catching most of the games for the Indianapolis club. Catcher Stratton is expected to reach here sometime today and Knoll will have a chance to look over his backstops.

It is with a certain degree of sadness that we announce the release of H. Austin Durrell. He was the only Eva who parted his name in the middle.

Traders to Be Strong.

The Northside Board of Trade will have the strongest team it has ever had on the diamond this season. Big Lefty Westerwick, star port sider of the Traders, has been appointed captain. Carl Poke, star moundsman of the Traders last season, is getting in shape and expects a banner year. The management has made a 10-strike in securing Hack Durrell, who played with Toronto, O., last season, to do the receiving. Harry Fowler, who was captain of the Bellevue team last season, will be seen in action with the Traders. McElroy and Boisch, who were to have gone to Flint, Mich., have decided to put in another season with the Traders. Weather conditions permitting, the Traders will practice Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Saturday afternoon. Jack Dittmer has been appointed president of the club again. Henry Dell is vice president. George Kuntz is secretary, treasurer and Jim Black the manager. The board of directors consists of Robert Cochrane, Thomas McBride, Charles Erdmann and George Mendelbaum. For games write James Black, 1234 California ave., Northside.
