the third out.
Manager Keeley made a couple of changes in the Chicago line-up, giving two former St. Louis Trolley League players a chance to show their ability. Felton and Miller being the local boys to play with the visitors. Both boys did their work well, although doing nothing startling. Felton got one good, clean single off Reis and stole a base, but Miller went hitless, although getting on base three times, once on a pass, again on an error and the final time on a fielder's choice.
