Jack Tighe, veteran manager of the Rock Island ball club, presented his resignation to the board of directors of the Rock Island Fans' association last night, asking that it be made effective immediately, and the club left for Bloomington this morning with Elmer Benson in charge. Announcement was made by President C. W. Mueller today that Bill Harley of Chicago, ex-Federal league player, now playing an outfield position for the Logan Squares in Chicago, would join the club on the road and assume the managerial reins. At the same meeting the resignation of Walter Flanagan as secretary of the club was accepted and Morgan Sexton was named acting secretary and left with the club today to take over the financial end of the trip.
