JONES DINES BREWS

Dan Jones, father of Johnny Jones, star pitcher for the Lily Brews, was host to Manager Vogel's team at his home in the West Side Tuesday night. The party was a stag affair and all the Brews made merry while the evening lasted. Of course there was plenty to eat.

the star and red is a pretty hard nut for any of these teams to crack. Manager Vogel has added two new heavers to his club, Johnny Jones, the star of last season and Ed Davis, the crack heaver of the N. C. R. club. Both of these men will be on hand, Sunday, though it is probable that Jones will do the flinging for the Brews. Preceding the game there will be a contest between the Lily Brew White Sox and the Garfield club. Walter Hirsch and Heide will be the pitchers, the game being called at 1:30.

in fifty-six games. Outfielder Donnelly batted 288 in eighty-seven games. Connell batted 289 in 134 games and Hobbs and Striker both hit over the 260 mark. "Casey" Jones, one of the star pitchers of the league, played in forty games with Hamilton and had a batting average of .252, which is exceedingly good for a pitcher worked as he was. Of the other players named who will become the property of the new company, all but two batted over 200.

Sunday afternoon Vogel's gang stacks up against Jake Milders' K. I. O. leaguers at Hamilton, and on this occasion one William Lape, former local heaver and more recently with the untamed Texas aggregation, will occupy the hill for the Dayton folks. Bill is in fine form this season and now that Johnny Jones has joined the Marion Ohio State leaguers, there will be plenty of work for Bill to do before the leaves begin to fall next autumn.

Each Team in the Battle Is Charged with One Error—Portsmouth Gets Twelve Hits and the Diggers Register Four.

[BY F. W. SHERIDAN.]

Portsmouth, O., May 7.—"Casey" Jones might have been a brave engineer, but when it comes to applying the brakes on the locals he runs out of sand, as was vividly demonstrated, Monday afternoon, when, pitching his level best, he fell before the onslaughts of the locals by the score of seven to one and that without half trying. He was clubbed when hits meant runs.

season by daubing a coat of white-wash over Zeke Wrigley's boys by a score of 6 to 0. Casey Jones, Marion's giant right hander, had the home team at his mercy at every stage of the game. On the other hand the visitors got to Schantze with gleeful frequency, which cou-

"Casey" Jones Released.

Pitcher "Casey" Jones was given his release by the local management, Thursday night. Jones was expected to be the reliable twirler of the local staff, but since the first part of the season he has failed to come up to expectations. Jones was unfortunate in a number of the games he pitched, the Diggers playing poorly back of him at times, and not hitting. He was well liked by the fans, who regret that he was unable to get into the condition he was in last season.

"Casey" Jones Released.

Pitcher "Casey" Jones who was released by the local club, and later signed by Mansfield, has been given his release by the management of the latter club. Jones pitched several good games for the Tigers, but was unable to land a victory.

Two new pitchers have joined the Mansfield camp and will bolster up the pitching staff to some extent. Pitcher Woods, of Hinton, W. Va., joined the McCormick crew at Portsmouth and if he does not join the club at Portsmouth, Casey Jones will be with the club here. Jones was recently released by the Marion club after he had failed to display the form he showed last season. Mana-

Holmes Gets Johnny Jones

Johnny Jones, West Side pitcher, whose work with the Lily Brews in past seasons, has stamped him as having considerable ability, has accepted terms with Ducky Holmes and will receive a trial with Holmes's Saginaw club in the Southern Michigan league this season. Holmes was greatly impressed by John's hurling in the Brew-Superba series last fall when Ducky caught for the Superbas. Johnny looked real good then and Ducky believes he will do him a lot of good this year.

Jones pitched for Mansfield in the Ohio State league part of last season, winning six games and losing the same number. While not exactly a youngster, he is not old enough to be classed with the veterans. Jones uses a spit ball effectively and has a cool head.

Johnny Jones, Dayton boy, is pitching good ball for the Ducks and Holmes is not sorry he signed him up last winter. Schwenk has pitched more innings than any hurler in the league and is the leading southpaw on the circuit. Ducky is down below the .300 mark in batting, but he is still

Saginaw and Jackson Baeak Even Monday

SAGINAW, Aug. 12.—Saginaw and Jackson divided a double header here Monday. Jackson took the first contest, 4 to 2. "Red" Ferren was on the mound for Jackson in the first game and won over "Lefty" Schwenk. Although he was hit a little harder he was tighter in the pinches. The second contest went to the Ducks, 3 to 2. Louie North and Johnny Jones hooked up in a hot battle in this game and although North allowed the least number of hits his own wildness and his teammates' errors proved to be his undoing, misplays paving the way for two of Saginaw's tallies.

First game: R. H. E.
Jackson ... 0 2 2 0 0 0 0 0 — 4 8 2
Saginaw ... 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 0 — 2 7 2

Second game: R. H. E.
Jackson ... 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 — 2 9 2
Saginaw ... 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 — 3 5 2
Batteries—North and Slevlin; Jones and Snyder.

Still with Saginaw in August, so not Johnny Jones from Steubenville & the Kansas City.

Also not Johnny Jones with Terre Haute in 1912.

Saginaw Fans Fond of "Ducks"

They evidently like "Ducky" Holmes up in Saginaw and are rather proud of the way he and Louie Moosbrugger of this city provided good baseball for them this summer. The following excerpt from the Monday issue of the Saginaw Daily News contains a nice boost for "Ducky" and a boost for Johnny Jones, the Dayton lad, who heaved high class ball for the "Ducks" all season.

Manager and half owner Ducky Holmes, of the Saginaw ball club, arrived in the city this morning after spending a few days at Toledo. He is on the job to stay until he goes to Dayton on April 14th and rounds up his players. The contest to rename the park will be put on immediately. Ducky has signed a new pitcher by the name of Johnny Jones who hails from Cincinnati.

The Saginaw man has the refusal of any player on the Dayton team after that club is picked. Some good Central league timber may be handed over to this city.

Ducky found the uniforms on hand when he arrived. They are neat and trim and will make a better appearance than the uniforms which have been worn.

Jones Will Fling For All-Pros

Johnny Jones, who won 25 games for the Saginaw club in the South Michigan league this summer, will likely be on the slab for the All Professionals, Sunday afternoon when the Lily Brews are encountered at Highland Park.

In this game Johnny will be pitching against his old team mates. Fans remember the old championship games between the Shilohs and Brews, when Jones' twirling was always a feature of the series. Well Johnny went up to Saginaw with "Ducky" Holmes this season and his work was high-class throughout, in fact he was the finger who kept the "Ducks" in Heider Arthur Mills.

Johnny Jones and Scott, pitchers, who were with Ducky last year, are again slated to do his heavy twirling, and Ducky is also banking heavily on Southpaw Russ Robbins, of Versailles, O., who will break into professional ball as one of the Ducks this year. Allie Baschang and Steve Manning will be back in Ducky's outfield, and Snyder will again be on hand to help in the catching.

The other five members of Holmes squad are all pitchers. Johnny Jones, a veteran of 1913 who won 25 games for the Ducks last season, leading all of Holmes' hurlers; Walter Scott, another veteran, who pitched Adrian to a championship in 1912 and has recovered this spring from a slump that last all through the 1913 season; Bill Lape, released at the close of the 1913 season by Kalamazoo after going bad for only a few weeks; Selbert, a young semi-pro hurler who pitched a string of one-hit, two-hit and three-hit games last season against the fastest independent teams in Michigan, and Arthur Bremer, a saginaw boy who was with the Ducks the last ten days of the 1913 season.

bat in Sunday's game with the Olts at Highland Park.

On the slab the Brews will present their old-time winner, Johnny Jones, the lad who has fooled the Olts often in the past few years. Jones has just finished a successful season in the Ohio State league and it goes without saying he will bother the Superbas in the coming game.

There will be plenty of grub, refreshments and music on tap all evening. All players who participated in the series and a few of their friends will be Daddy's guests. The spread comes off at the Jones residence, 1726 west Fifth street and the fun will start at 8 o'clock. This is Daddy's night and he's pretty good at showing his friends a hot time.

Next Summer.

Johnny Jones, newly appointed patrolman, known among his friends of the baseball world as the "Speed King," has been named pitcher for the team being organized by policemen. Jones was formerly connected with the Saginaw team, and was instrumental in the defeat of the Shiloh team last summer when they played a series with Lily Brews.

Johnny Jones, pitcher; right-hander; former Ohio State leaguer with Portsmouth and Hamilton, led Saginaw's boxmen last season, winning 25 out of 38 games pitched; lives in Dayton and takes great pleasure each fall in declaring he's going to "quit baseball for good and go back home to help the 'old man' run his saloon."
