

Joe Lake – Cleveland 1913

Decide Title Today New City Tennis Champion May be Borne Today Plain Dealer Saturday, Jul 19, 1913 Cleveland, OH Issue:200 Page:7 hes < > Q Lake;Federals Find FEDS PLAY TWO GAMES SUNDAY. Return Home From Trip to Open With Kansas City. The Cleveland Federals will inaugurate a long home stay Sunday afternoon by playing a double-header with Kansas City at Luna park. Cy's men return from a two-week road trip, having met all the teams in the league on the swing around the circuit. Two new faces will appear in Manager Young's line-up. Lake is one of the new men, an outfielder. Juul, a pitcher, is the other. Juul may work in the first game against the Kansas City outfit. Blaser or H. Miller will assume mound duty in the second game.	The Macon News Mon, Jun 22, 1914 ·Page 1 AUGUSTA OUTFIELDER HAS BEEN REINSTATED Columbia, S. C., June 22.—Outfielder Lake, last year with the Cleveland Federal League club, joined the Columbia South Atlantic League team here today and will play in the Augusta-Columbia series. Outfielder Mackert, of the Augusta club, recently fined $100 and suspended indefinitely for continuous kicking, will also be seen in the game today, his suspension having been lifted.
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Joe Lake with Columbia in 1914 and 1915

The State Tue, Jun 23, 1914 ·Page 8 Lake, a New Man, Made a Good Beginning and Correll Caught a Nice Game. Harbison brought his team back to Columbia yesterday and won the first game of the new season on the home grounds by a healthy score, 11 to 0. Although his teammates were making runs galore, Cliff Averett refused to let up his pace and was just as stingy with the visiting players in the last frame as he was in the opening round, so much so that Augusta failed to score on the Georgian. Manager Brouthers protested the game because Shaw was not allowed to play. The line up of both teams was considerably changed for the game. Because of Chalker's illness, Lee Correll was forced to go behind the bat. Lake, a new man, was sent to right field. Ned Ezell, who was injured recently, retired from the game after it	The State Tue, Mar 09, 1915 ·Page 8 Joe Lake writes from Jacksonville, Fla., that he was married this winter, and that he is now working with a cement company in the Florida city. He has been allowed a few days longer than the others in which to report. He will be here about March 28, as his present position will end that day. Tiny Stuart writes from his home in
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

JOE LAKE HERE READY FOR WORK

Outfielder-Firstbaseman Arrived Yesterday.

OTHER NEWS OF CAMP

Comers and Carolina Will Play Thursday—Roy Green Expected Today.

Joe Lake arrived in town yesterday, several days earlier than he was expected. He took a good workout in the afternoon.

Lake spent the winter in Florida, working in Jacksonville. He had been granted permission by President Platt not to report until March 28. He has been getting in one hour's practice each day with the Jacksonville team and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Joe Lake is said to have abandoned his baseball career for other business which he finds more lucrative.

baseball-reference.com/register/player.fcgi?id=lake--001m--

Joe Lake

Positions: Second Baseman, Outfielder and First Baseman

Bats: Unknown • Throws: Unknown

Full Name: Joe Lake

View Player Info from the B-R Bullpen

Teams Played For

Share & Export ▼ Glossary

Year	Age	Tm	Lg	Lev	Aff	Stint	From	To
1914	--	Columbia Comers	South Atlantic League	C
1915	--	Columbia Comers	South Atlantic League	C

Chadwick ID: b50184f1

Lake with Frankfort in Blue Grass League in May 1912

The State Journal Fri, May 03, 1912 ·Page 1 d that Frankfort has an even chance e to win the opening game from the last year's champions. The new right fielder, Lake, who is to take Copeland's place, will be in the game today and it is said that he is some batter himself. The Line-Up. The following will be the line-up of the two teams today: Frankfort—Giddo, c.; Cramer or French, p.; Hughes, 1b.; Seebach, 2b.; Konnick, ss.; Donica, 3b.; Nich- olson, lf.; Gfroerer, cf.; Lake, rf. Paris—Delehanty, c.; Lewis or Houser, p.; Popkin, 1b.; Harrell, 2b.; Benton, ss.; Fenzell, 3b.; Camp- bell, lf.; Woods, cf.; Goodman, rf.	The State Journal Wed, May 22, 1912 ·Page 4 is e y Lake, who was signed as a change catcher for Frankfort, has been re- leased. He was a good batter, but his throwing arm was out of whack, having never recovered from a severe cold he caught in it last fall. * * * Possibly Henry Lake? Not Marvin Lake.
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------