Having released Wessel, Manager Price of the Stogies is without a capable guardian of the short field. McCombs has been tried and found wanting. Venable's stomach is on the blink. Salm is unacquainted with the position. Joe Lisk, an amateur is to be given a try out until Roudabusch reports June 1.

Melton Backus, of Winfield, has been secured to act as field manager. Backus is a splendid backstop, besides something of a clouter. He has signed four men and Will Fraim has signed six men so far. The men signed are: R. D. Strickler, of Craig, Mo., a short-stop and is well recommended; Arthur Fuller of Winfield, a second cushion man, he played last year at Alva and gave a very good account of himself. Joe Lisk Writes.

Local friends of Joe Lisk, well known young man of this city, have received a letter from him written from Germany, where he is now located with the American forces. Joe states that he crossed the Rhine on December 13 and is still over there, and does not know for a certainty when he will be able to get back to Bridgeport.
