Story of Run Making.

The locals gathered one run in the opener without the aid of a hit. O'Leary stopped a ball with his anatomy and walked to first, Stanley sacrificed, and O'Leary counted when Smith threw wild on Kading's grounder. Three more "Feds" crossed the pan in the second on a combination of two doubles, a single by Timmersman, a hit batsman, and an error.

The final tally was scored in the seventh with two out. O'Leary walked and stole second. Cavanaugh's second double drove in the run. Score:

anything startling.

The third bag guardian is still a puzzle to Philippe. Haberman played a good game at that position until he was injured on the throwing hand by a pitched ball. Sellers, who took his place, played the position in good style, but Philippe would rather use the Rube in the outfield. Molyneaux, the new man tried out by Philippe yesterday, had only one chance during the game and handled himself well, but at bat he failed to connect for a hit. He did not accompany the team when it left for St. Louis tonight.

MOLYNEAUX SIGNED BY WATCHMAKERS

Springfield, Ill., March 1.—E. J. Molyneaux, who is considered one of the fastest infielders in the minor leagues, will report for spring practice with the Watchmakers. Directors of the local association have received a signed contract from him following an agreement reached between the former Oshkosh player and Manager Frank Donnelly. Molyneaux lives in Chicago.

The infielder was purchased from Oshkosh last year, but declined to report here. It was expected that he would hold out this season.

Timmersman Stars on Slab.

Only twelve men faced Timmersman in the first four rounds. The visitors' first swat came in the sixth, when Callahan belted one over the right field wall for two sacks. The Filipinos bunched a double and a single in the seventh, but failed to tally. Menosky doubled with one down and tried to score on Molyneaux's single to right, despite the fact that his team was five runs behind at the time. He was flagged at the plate. Molyneaux is the former Gunther star who has been playing with the Springfield Three Eyes league team. He jumped the capital club on Saturday and yesterday marked his first appearance with the Federals.

REYNOLDS IS FAST.

Reynolds is playing a very fast game in right, and Molyneaux, who was signed to look after the third corner, but who has been playing left field, is showing up well there. Both of these men are improvements over those who occupied the same positions prior to their signing with the Jobbers. They are good stickers, fast men on the bases, and run getters.

Schoenhofens About the Same.

Schoenhofen fans will have much the same team the coming year as the one they followed with so much interest last season. Harry Foley and Louis Goldblum will be the probable battery, with Jimmy Hotten, Harry Bartell, Eddie Molyneaux, Harry Seidenbecker, George Hanson, and Eddie Hassett scattered around the diamond. Elgin, the only outside team to schedule players so far, has submitted the names of A. Andrews, Lee and Larry Mahoney, Henderson, Billy Murphy, Haeger, O'Neill, A. White, and Barnaby.

Lineups of the new Rogers Park, Logan Squares, White Rocks, Grosse Clothiers, and Ashlands will probably be completed in a few days. It is stated unofficially that Frank Ginger is to manage the Grosse Clothiers, and Louis Gertenrich the Rogers Park club.

The old Joliet Standard park in Joliet is to be opened again this year with a strong semi-pro team. Billy Moran and Tom McHugh are the owners of the grounds with Jack Carney as captain of the team. Games have been booked with University of Chicago for March 25 and April 5 at Marshall field. Jake Welmer, Frank Eldridge, and "Giant" Odenthal will be the pitchers and Ed Gunning the catcher. Others on the club are Joe Crowley, first; "Chick" O'Connor, second; Carney, third; Eddie Molyneaux, shortstop; Bill Kinsley, left; Laxser, center, and Driscoll, right.

able to serve on the slab if necessary.

Eddie Molyneaux—A candidate for short stop, who has played here with Jern Mackey's White Rocks, looks like a "make good." He is well known in semi-pro circles.

the juniors. It was one of the most sincere and impressive bits of advice that could possibly have been given. Eddie Molyneaux, former baseball star, who used to play infield position away back when, told some entertaining stories.

Still in Chicago in 1933

Reminiscence took the spotlight at the annual roundup of the South Chicago Oldtime Baseball Players and Fans Association, Inc., last night at Barney's Grill where hundreds of local former diamond stars and fans gathered.

Peter F. Kipley, president, welcomed the crowd. James Thorpe, former All American football star and all around athlete, Mike Malloy, fight promoter, and Edward Molyneaux, former local baseball star, brought back old memories to the crowd with their stories.
