FEDERALS TO PLAY TWO TODAY.

Cold Weather Causes Postponement of Game with Pittsburgh—O'Brien to Hurl in Opener.

The Chicago-Federals called off the game scheduled with Pittsburgh yesterday because of cold weather. A double header will be staged at De Paul field today, the first game starting at 1:30 o'clock. Jimmy O'Brien, who made his first appearance with Keeley's team last Thursday, will hurl the opener for Chicago. O'Brien is a son of Police Captain P. D. O'Brien, and is well known on the south side. A delegation of friends from the White Sox territory will be present.
