

Ray O'Brien
First game July 6
Last game July 12

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (St. Louis, Missouri) • 13 Jul 1913, Sun • Page 10 Alpen Braus Meet Collinsville. The Alpen Braus will play the Collinsville, Ill., team to-day at South Broadway Park. Collinsville defeated the Alpen Braus in their last game by a score 3 to 2, and Manager Brock expects this game to be the best of the season. Brock will use his same line-up outside of Bishop and O'Brien, who is now with O'Conner's Federals. Roth and Brock will do the battery work for the brewery boys. Hazenbrook and Smith for Collinsville. Curtain raiser, Ben Hurs vs. Wabash.	St. Louis Globe-Democrat (St. Louis, Missouri) • 27 Jul 1913, Sun • Page 53 Alpen Braus Meet O'Neils. The Alpen Braus will play the fastest traveling club in the city, the O'Neils, who have defeated some of the best teams in and around St. Louis. This game should be one of the best of the season. Early in the season the brewery boys trimmed the lumber ball tossers by a score of 6 to 4. The O'Neils have greatly strengthened their team by adding some of the best Trolley League stars. Manager Rudie Brock has signed two new pitchers for Sunday's battle. Ray O'Brien will play first base, J. Brock, catcher, Nemo, second base, Hipert, third base, Webb, shortstop, Ballingall, center field, and R. Brock, right field. Judy or Beers and Smith will do the battery work for the O'Neils. Ben Hurs will play the Field-Lippmans in the curtain-raiser.
Bishop and O'Brien from Alpen Braus in 1913	Ray O'Brien playing for Alpen Braus at first base on July 27.

Ray O'Brien

Raymond Joseph O'Brien
Bats Left, Throws Left
Height 5' 9", Weight 175 lb.
Debut June 27, 1916
Final Game July 12, 1916
Born October 31, 1894 in St. Louis, MO USA
Died March 31, 1942 in Richmond Heights, MO USA
BR page

obrien001ray

Giants.

Sporting News: If Ray O'Brien, the St. Louis youth taken on by the Pirates from Davenport of the Three-I, makes good, then Bill Hinchman will cover first base regularly for the Pirate, which will mean the passing of Dos Johnston. O'Brien himself once played first base for the St. Louis Feds, but was developed into an outfielder at Davenport.

Not Tim O'Brien

Tim O'Brien

Bats: Unknown • Throws: Unknown

Full Name: Tim O'Brien

View Player Info from the B-R Bullpen

Teams Played For Share & Export Glossary

Year	Age	Tm	Lg	Lev	Aff	Stint	From	To
1907	--	Dallas Giants	Texas League	C
1908	--	Dubuque Dubs	Illinois-Indiana-Iowa League	B
1909	--	New Haven Black Crows	Connecticut State League	B
1909	--	York White Roses	Tri-State League	B
1910	--	Dayton Veterans	Central League	B

obrien001tim

pennant winning team.
 Dubuque's place in the league is secure. The injunction still in force in Dubuque against President Holland and the officers of the league restraining them from interfering with the Dubuque franchise insures this. It is the common observation of fans that if Holland was half as secure in his presidency he would have cause to congratulate himself.

Sign Players.

While the signing of players is still going forward and the aggregation is still in a formative stage enough of the nucleus of the team has been secured to give an idea of what sort of material Dubuque will have the coming year. Up to date the men who have been signed and who will assemble for tryouts are as follows:

Catchers—Mickey O'Brien of Mobile, Tim O'Brien of St. Louis, Harry White of Indianapolis, John Hanna of Watseka, Ill.

Pitchers—Stewart Guernsey of Detroit,

This could be same Tim O'Brien...

Hank Bieger, the Orphans' reliable pitcher, will work on the mound against Swacina's team. Bieger has twirled excellent ball all season. On one occasion Bieger equaled Rube Waddell's great record of striking out sixteen batsmen in the regulation nine innings.

Swacina has gathered a strong combination of ball tossers together for the contest and the game should be well worth seeing. Lefty Liefield of Pittsburg will pitch for the All-Stars, with Butch Kerns of Dallas behind the bat. The remainder of the club will be composed as follows: Swacina, Louisville, first base; Tim Flood, St. Paul, second base; Arthur Bader, shortstop; Billy Shipke, Washington, third base; Tim O'Brien, Decatur; Frank Huelsman Johnston and Benny Meyers, St. Paul, will make up the outfield.

Manager Sebastian will use his regular lineup against the All-Stars. The game will be played at South End Park and Al Warner will umpire. The contest will start promptly at 3 o'clock.

Tim O'Brien with Decatur (Dubuque?) in 1908

SORRY will be Bob Hedges, if he does not give big Tim O'Brien a trial behind the bat next season.

This chap stands six feet, two inches, weighs 190 pounds, is fast as a deer and only 23 years old.

Last season he played in the Three-I League, making a splendid record.

He's another Larry McLean—doing everything—but putting away the high ones.

O'Brien's a free lance and Rowland of Aberdeen is trying to grab him.

Keep him home, Bob, you'll never regret it!

* * *

1910-23 = 1887

They Beat St. Leo's Twice.
Their manager, Dan Broderick, has the honor of being the only manager in St. Louis whose team has defeated St. Leo's more than once.
The team's roster for the coming season is: Halloway as goal keeper, Tim O'Brien and "Sunny" Shea of last season's "Keen Cutters," fullbacks; Capt. Saubraun, Mike Devanney and "Red" Smith, halfbacks; McCaffery, Sucher, "Scrappy" Claude Jameson, "Ribby" Murphy and Thomas, forwards.
The Knights of Columbus Club, under the management of John (King)

CENTRAL LEAGUE.
(Class B.)
Ed Brennan, catcher, Terre Haute.
Tim O'Brien, catcher, Dayton.
THREE-I LEAGUE.
(Class B.)
Bill Meyers, third base, Peoria.

TIM O'BRIEN STAYS HOME TO PLAY BALL
Dayton Catcher Refuses to Leave Mother—Gives Up Fine Prospects.
Tall Tim O'Brien, very clever catcher and finished soccer player, will not play with Dayton of the Central League, this season.
Tim, instead, will stay in St. Louis and hook up with a business house team, following the lead of Vin Camp-

3 of 3 matches < > "Alpen Braus" Webb Find Cancel be lifted today.
HERE are some of the stars of handsome Eddie Brock's Alpen Braus. Rea Daly, pitcher; Dalton, third base; Kumpen, right field; Maddox, left field; base; Webb, shortstop; Brock, catcher; Curran, second base; Brock, utility.

Al Bishop also played for the Alpen Braus team in 1913, along with Webb and O'Brien.

O'Brien (left) and Webb (right) from photo

Tim O'Brien shows up catching for Belleville in 1910

Timothy J O'Brien

BIRTH	22 Mar 1887 Saint Louis, St. Louis City, Missouri, USA
DEATH	25 Mar 1939 (aged 52) Saint Louis, St. Louis City, Missouri, USA
BURIAL	Calvary Cemetery and Mausoleum Saint Louis, St. Louis City, Missouri, USA
PLOT	Section 20; Lot 1366
MEMORIAL ID	47459605 · View Source

Timothy J. O'Brien, Court Clerk, Dies

Timothy J. O'Brien, a clerk in the office of John P. Connally, Clerk of the Court of Criminal Correction, and an old-time St. Louis soccer and baseball player, died yesterday of a brain tumor at his home, 4125A St. Louis avenue.

Mr. O'Brien, 52 years old, had been unable to attend to his duties since he was operated on last September.

He formerly played full back for the Innisfails, leading soccer team here from 1914 to 1920, and served several seasons as a catcher for minor league baseball teams, including Dubuque of the Three I League.