MONTE OLMSTED RETURNS TO CITY FROM FOND DU LAC

Unable to get in proper condition
that he might make a favorable showing, "Monte" Olmsted, the Escanaba left hander, returned to Escanaba yesterday from Fond du Lac where he has been trying out with the team in that city in the Wisconsin-Illinois league. Olmsted suffered from a lame arm early in last week and when he was sent into Saturday's game he was unable to get control of the ball. He contributed four bases on balls to the opposing team and was hoisted and Sunday decided to return here.

Monte Olmsted, the Garden side-wheeler, who has signed this season with the Dayton team of the Central league is hung up in Chicago awaiting the subsiding of the floods in the Indiana and Ohio districts before reporting for the spring training trip. The Menominee Herald-Leader says:

A number of local baseball fans are in receipt of postal cards from Monte Olmsted, who is in Chicago. He will not be able to get to Dayton, O., and join the Dayton club for a number of days because of the flood.

Harry Gilbertson, who recently received an offer from that club, has not yet decided as to whether or not he will accept it.

Olmsted Canned

Southpaw Monte Olmsted was given his unconditional release from the Dayton club by Manager Johnny Nee Friday morning. Johnny allowed Monte more rest than any other pitcher before starting him in a game. Then Monte made such a miserable showing the Vet boss decided not to bother with him any more. The big fellow should be a pitcher and will probably come around later on.

"Monte" Olmsted, former pitcher for the local baseball team, and until recently a member of the Dayton team of the Central league, has joined the Chicago team of the new Federal league and pitched his first game for that aggregation against Covington at Indianapolis, Ind., on Saturday.

and Oshkosh. A double bill is scheduled for Saturday with the Creams.

Six pitchers, Wells, Ormsby, Ryan, Bryant, Shelly and Monte Olmsted, Catchers Erickson and J. Walsh, and the regular infielders and outfielders were in the party that went to Milwaukee. Olmsted is a south paw who pitched for the Dayton, Ohio, club. He was given his release by that club a few days ago. Outfielder Fallon was released last night by the club. The team is in second place, two and one-half games behind Oshkosh.

Mr. Olmstead Dies Sunday

Fremont (Monte) Olmstead, 85, Garden, died early Sunday morning at the Four Seasons Nursing Home in Escanaba. He was a retired woodsman.

Born May 1, 1886 in Sac Bay, he spent the greater part of his life on the Garden Peninsula. As a young man, he was an outstanding baseball player, and played professional ball in the Ohio Valley for several seasons.

He was married to the former Lulu Stratton in Gladstone in 1957. She died June 14, 1970.

Survivors include several nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Messier-Broullire Funeral Home in Garden beginning at 4 p.m. Tuesday. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Garden funeral home, with Rev. Lowell Fox of the Garden Congregational Church, officiating. Burial will be in the new Garden Cemetery.
