Julius Orris, the clever backstop on the twice-champion West End team of the Allegheny & Washington County League, has been signed by the Wheeling club of the Central League, and will leave for the Nail City today for a trial under Manager Bill Phillips.

Orris is one of the best independent backstops in Allegheny county, and his friends feel certain he will make good in the Central League. He has had considerable experience with high-class teams however before he joined the speedy West End bunch. Orris' home is in Mt. Washington.
