THE CLEVELAND LEADER | Sunday, Jun 08, 1913 | Page:20

The first inning went scoreless for the opposing boys, as Miller's effective pitching shattered their hopes of hitting safely. This peeved the Indianapolis sluggers, because it caused a drop in their batting averages. Our boys came in for the latter part of the first period and chalked up a run. After Potts went out on a grounder to first Lawson came up with a corking double to left. Then "Doc" Patton came to the rescue with a long triple to right center. The clever third sacker docked at third. His inability to run at a swifter pace prevented him from scoring.

STAR PLAYERS ON CY YOUNG'S FEDERAL TEAM

BERNARD PATTON
3RD BASE

WM HARLEY
LEFT FIELD

Harley is Cy Young's stellar outer gardener. He has been playing the very difficult position of left field at Luna and his mountain goat catches have made him known all over the circuit.

Patton is the hard hitting Cleveland boy who has been playing third base for Cleveland ever since the season opened. His position at the difficult corner seems practically cinched throughout the present season.
