

Ed Sanford

The Lexington Herald
19 Feb 1913, Wed · Page 3

Pitcher Sanford, with Maysville last year, and now the property of that club, will be released to the Albany club, of the South Atlantic League, which will be managed this year by Harry Kunkel, leader of the Rivermen in 1912.

The Daily Republican
12 Sep 1913, Fri · Page 8

Word received today by the management of the Arcadians from Cincinnati is that a pitcher had been secured. The pitcher is Ed Sanford, of the Kansas City Federal league team. The Federal season closes Saturday and Sanford is already at his home in Cincinnati. Sanford will work for the Arcadians Sunday against the fast Superba team of Cincinnati.

The Public Ledger
18 Jul 1914, Sat · Page 6

Ed Sanford has been sold to the De Moines, Ia., club in the Western League and will report at once.

The Topeka State Journal
21 Jul 1914, Tue · Page 4

Cooley is trying to obtain three other men, and if he is successful the Topeka club will make a good showing during the rest of the season. Pitcher Boardman, a pitcher who has been with the club, was dropped at Omaha. Cooley did not think he was fast enough for Western League company. He has secured another pitcher, a man named Sanford, who was with Pitcher Dashner until a short time ago. Sanford was signed on Dashner's recommendation.

The Cincinnati Enquirer
19 Jul 1914, Sun · Page 12

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Frederick W. Tahse, 40, salesman, 2253 Harrison avenue, and Emma E. Biederwelle, 31, 1126 Poplar street. Rev. Selzer.

Bradley Briscoe, 22, laborer, 417 Betts street, and Olive Ninson, 19, laundress, 917 Elm street. Squire Dumont.

Charles D. Koehler, 31, tailor, Mt. Healthy, Ohio, and Addie Case, 35, tailor, New Burlington, Ohio. Rev. Louis C. Hummel.

Arthur C. Jacobs, 30, jeweler, Avondale, and Elsa L. Fissmer, 23, 1657 Herbert avenue. Rev. Louis Grossmann.

Peter Roth, 24, butcher, 2152 Kindel avenue, and Emma Herbert, 21, 2283 Colerain avenue. Rev. Nemenz.

Herbert Van Hook, 24, cook, Jonesboro, Ind., and Lena Rebohn, 21, tailoress, 1415 Walnut street.

August Lohmeier, 23, tailor, El Paso, Texas, and Anna Boecker, 23, seamstress, Reading road. Rev. Brown.

Joseph V. Williams, 30, Superintendent, Norwood, and Daisy F. Henninger, 29, Madisonville, Ohio. Rev. W. M. Hart.

Arthur L. Shreffler, 29, physician, Joliet, Ill., and Edna G. Luke, 27, teacher, 2134 Alpine place. Rev. Farr.

John P. Junker, 24, leather worker, 507 York street, and Mary M. Gibney, 19, clerk, 520 Betts street.

Tillman Carlisle, 28, laborer, 703 West Fifth street, and Lela Hily, 29, laundress, 703 West Fifth street. Rev. Green.

Edward L. Landford, 26, ball player, 2103 Eastern avenue, and Bertha Presser, 21, 1840 Baltimore avenue.

Edward Legrand Sanford

BIRTH 11 MAY 1887 • Burlington, Boone, Kentucky, USA
DEATH 26 FEB 1949

Family

Parents

Timothy Horton Sanford
1857-1923

Mary Jane Beemon Sanford
1861-1903

Siblings

Spouse and children

Bertha Presser Sanford
1895-1973

The Cincinnati Enquirer
01 Feb 1949, Tue · Page 30

Two Bandits Beat Victim, Get Table Radio And Cash

Two armed bandits slugged Edward Sanford, 57, 1080 W. Liberty St., and robbed him of $100 and a table radio in his first-floor apartment last night, police were informed.

Sanford said the men, about 20 years old, knocked on his door at 8:30 p.m. When he answered the men pointed revolvers at him and one of them said: "Give me your money." Forcing him back inside, the two men struck him on his head with their guns.

Sanford was taken to General Hospietal for treatment of severe head injuries.

The Cincinnati Enquirer

27 Feb 1949, Sun · Page 46

78

TIME OF SERVICE.

SANFORD — Edward L., husband of Bertha Sanford, and devoted father of Mrs. Isabelle Joplin, Mabel, Edward Jr. and Ralph Sanford, and brother of Mrs. Irba Keefer, Saturday, February 26, 1949. Funeral from the John J. Radel Co. funeral home, 652 State Ave. Due notice of funeral.