Phil Kavanaugh's Ben Millers will start the ball rolling in the semipro. class this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when they mix with the Alpen Braus of Granite City, Ill. in a practice game at Pastime Park, 4400 North Newstead avenue, their new Mo-Ill (Trolley) League home. The Ben Millers' line-up follows: Cremins, catcher; Hall, pitcher; Schaefer, pitcher; O'Brien, first base; Kunkel, second base; Miller, shortstop; Wamhoff, third base; Kavanaugh, center field; O'Donnell, left field; Matticks, right field; Carey, utility.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (St. Louis, Missouri) • 08 Jul 1913, Tue • Page 7  Cleveland hammered the offerings of Pitcher Reis to all corners of Federal League Park yesterday afternoon and as a result had an easy time in capturing the opening game of the series with the local third leaguers, the final score being 1 to 2. After the visitors had secured almost a commanding lead Manager O'Connor benched him to allow a substitute batter to try and regain some of the lost ground, and then sent in Schaefer to stop the terrific hitting of Cy Young's boys. The former Trolley League hurler performed very creditably, allowing but one run the three innings he was in the box. As Ragsdale batted for Schaefer in the eighth Manager O'Connor had to trot out another pitcher, Tobin being the pitcher to draw the assignment. Tobin's wildness allowed Cleveland to gain an extra tally in the ninth. Manager Young was extremely anxious.	The St. Louis Star and Times (St. Louis, Missouri) • 12 Mar 1913, Wed • Page 9  Manager Kavanaugh has lined up practically the Alton Trolley team of last year, including Pitchers George Schaefer and "Tex" Hall; Infielders Franke, Harry Kohler, Johnny Miller and Wamhoff, with himself, Mattick and Willie O'Donnell in the outfield, the latter the only player from last season's Ben Miller team to be retained.
