

Red Smith

Maybe Wayne "Red" Smith, dental student and football player at U Pitt?

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette 23 Apr 1913, Wed · Page 14 Pitt surely is enthusiastic over its football prospects for next fall. The varsity men are working on the athletic field every afternoon. Capt. Hub Wagner is leading in the work. Bill Leahy, the guard, is now out. He took on considerable weight the past winter. Red Smith, guard, took on weight, but he has worked it off. He plays ball during the summer around Punxsutawney and always reports in trim.	Pittsburgh Post-Gazette 14 Aug 1913, Thu · Page 9 at first. Manager Phillippe selected Red Smith to do the pitching for the Fils, but he lasted only two innings, when Brickley, the star pitcher of Indiana Normal, who signed a Federal League contract several days ago, relieved him. This youngster pitched an exceptionally fine game. The contest by innings:
The Pittsburgh Post 28 Nov 1913, Fri · Page 7 <h2>RED SMITH IS NEW CAPTAIN</h2> Veteran Guard Will Lead Pitt Gridders in 1914—Wagner Gets Present. Wayne B. Smith—or, as he is better known, "Red" Smith—was last night chosen to lead the Pitt football team in 1914 at a meeting of this year's letter men held in the Hotel Schenley, preceding the annual football banquet which marks both the end of the grid season and the fracturing of the training code into little bits. Red's choice was unanimous.	The Pittsburgh Press 15 Feb 1969, Sat · Page 5 <h3>Dr. Wayne B. Smith PUNXSUTAWNEY — Dr. Wayne B. Smith, a practicing dentist in Pittsburgh until his retirement in 1960, died yesterday in the Mountain View Convalescent Home in Hillsdale, Indiana County.</h3> Dr. Smith, 79, who formerly lived at 525 Briar Cliff Rd. in Wilkinsburg, was a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh and was the captain of Pitt's 1914 football team. He was the head football coach at the University of Missouri for several years.
Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Wed, Apr 23, 1913 · Page 14 Pitt surely is enthusiastic over its football prospects for next fall. The varsity men are working on the athletic field every afternoon. Capt. Hub Wagner is leading in the work. Bill Leahy, the guard, is now out. He took on considerable weight the past winter. Red Smith, guard, took on weight, but he has worked it off. He plays ball during the summer around Punxsutawney and always reports in trim.	The Pittsburgh Press 04 Feb 1912, Sun · Page 22 McQuiston of Midway H. S., Pratt of Pittsburg H. S., Graves, the football player; Elmer Weger, the all-around athlete; Geary of Wilkinsburg H. S., and "Hube" Wagner, sensational football end. For the outfield there are many candidates. Among these are Wayne Smith, varsity guard on the football team, who won fame as a baseball star at Bellefonte academy; Oehsenhirt of Allegheny High, who has made good with a vengeance on the basketball five; Connelly, sub-quarterback on the gridiron team; McNary of Pittsburg H. S. and a member of the 1911 team; Camp of Tarentum H.