Manager Warner 'Cans' Ryan, Former Muskegon Player; Other Releases.

Cadillac, Mich., July 10.—There has been something doing in baseball circles during the last two days. Among other results has been the releasing by Manager Warner of "Buddy" Ryan and the summoning by wire of Alberts of Fort Wayne, who is supposed to be a good pitcher; Jack Stoker of Indianapolis, an outfielder from the Federal league; Ginter of Duluth, an outfielder from the Northern league, and McGivver, a catcher in the O. and P. league.

Dr. Moore's resignation as president of the team, has stirred up so much commotion among the fans and has caused so many to see that the president's attitude is one he cannot be blamed for, that there is an universal demand being made of him that he stay in during the balance of the season. No decision has been given by the president, but no better man could be found here for the place.

and kept his players fighting like mad. The Boyne Boosters and the Traverse City Rosorters broke even in a double-header at Boyne City, the Boosters winning the first by the score of 7 to 5, the Rosorters the second, 10 to 5. Both were free hitting contests. Manager Grover Gillen saved his team from defeat in the first game by his splendid fielding. The Boosters bunched their hits for six runs in the sixth inning of the first game. Holmquist was retired from the box in the first game, but came back gamely in the second, winning it for the Rosorters. The scores:

Manager Warner of the Cadillac team announces that he has released Outfielder Buddy Ryan and signed Pitcher C. Alberts, Jack Stoker, an outfielder from the Federal league; Ginter, an outfielder from the Northern league, and McGivver, a catcher from the O. and P. league. He is determined to give Cadillac a winning team if it is within his power. Fred (Cy) Alberts should greatly strengthen the pitching staff.

Lefty Roberts is not much bigger than a plut of elder, but works about three games a week for Boyne City, generally pitching a fair article of ball.

Manager Ed Smith of the Grand Rapids team says the Ludington club has captured a prize in Harry Arndt and that he looks for the Mariners to come pretty close to winning the pennant under Arndt's management.

Every effort is being made by the business men of Cadillac to induce Dr. Sair C. Moore to reconsider his resignation as president of the Cadillac club. All the other club officials of the league will be pleased if Dr. Moore continues in the office, for he has been a most able official, several times selected by the league president as chairman of important committees. His sage advice has a number of times quieted the delegates in attendance at meetings which threatened to be stormy.
