FEDERAL LEAGUERS
Will Play at Kokomo Sunday—Huber Signed as Trainer.
Business Manager John Spinney has signed Charley Huber, the local trainer, to keep the Covington Federal League players in condition. Huber is an experienced man, having done good work for the Reds and Pittsburg in former years. With Huber on the team such players as Jack Pfeister, Sam Leever and Admiral Schlei should have very little trouble getting in shape. The team is working out at Crowe's Park every morning and afternoon. Leever is putting the boys through a course of hard training. The Covington Club will play at Kokomo, Ind., the coming Sunday and open the league season at Cleveland on the third of May. The team to start off with Sunday will consist of the following players: Schlei, Ragdale, catchers; Pfeister, Leever, Romalno, Colina, Wissel and Uhlman, pitchers; Badel, first base; Reggy, second base; Cliff Thomas, shortstop; Rielley, third base; Decker, left field; Chapman, center field; Bartley or Daringer, right field.

The game between West Baden Grays and the Athletics Sunday will be a fight to a finish, as both teams are most anxious to secure the verdict. For this reason the Athletics have strengthened their team considerably by the securing of Boofter and Cliff Thomas, recently with Covington of the Federal League, and with these two stars in the line up, the Athletics will present the strongest team ever seen in action here, and are determined to give Bedford fans a team to be proud of. Don't fail to see the newly arranged team work against the fast team from West Baden.

all who see it.

The concessions are not as numerous this year as last. The better concessions from last year are in again this year. They include Verne Disney with his corn game, Golden & Grote with their barbecue and Cliff Thomas, a former Salem boy well-known as a ball player through here several years ago, with his blanket wheel, milk bottle and other games. The other concessions are of a clean nature and are a credit to the celebration.

the players from the Oil City.

Cliff Thomas, a former resident of Bedford, was imported from West Baden, and placed on third. He had several chances and accepted them all. Thomas was signed with the Kitty League last Spring but jumped his contract. He has recently been playing on the salaried team at West Baden.

The game, all in all, was the best that has been played on the local grounds this season and the team is to be congratulated on the quality of ball put up. The attendance was good.

Thomas is in Demand.
