FEDERAL LEAGUERS HAVE HARD WORKOUT

Manager Sam Leaver, the old-time Pittsburg pitcher, had his Covington Federal League Club working out at Crowe's Park yesterday morning and afternoon. There were about thirty men who are trying for positions and a great many of these are local boys. Leaver expects to have a first-class team to represent the over-the-river town and he may take the team to West Baden, Ind., for the balance of their training. Woods, a young pitcher from Hyde Park, looks very good to Sam, as does Chapman and Hicks, who were with the Cincinnati team in the United States League last season. This league will not open the season until May 10.

Who won? Why, Covington, of course. The final score was 9 to 8, and it took some mighty hard hitting and aggressive work to get that amount of runs, too, as Chicago has got a fast little ball club and it takes some fancy work to hand them the icy mitt.

Walter Justus started the game on the hill for Covington, but Chicago welcomed him as it would a long-lost brother and pounded out four runs. Leever yanked the Bearcat and sent young Woods, the 999 kid, to the mound. He got by for one inning. That was all.

Everybody's Doin' It.

Then everybody and his brother knocked the old pill over the right field fence, and the base runners had their tongues hanging out trotting around the paths. To the woods for Mr. Woods. Then a husky and handsome youth hastened from the shadow of the Covington bench and mounted the summit. McDonough, the live wire who performs with the big mitt for Chicago, greeted him by knocking the ball over the right field fence, and the fans groaned in agony as another run pattered in. But the kid was just teasing 'em.

He settled down and held the enemy in the hollow of his hand while he and his

FAVORITES 8-NORWOOD BL. 2

Before a large crowd at Mueller's yesterday the Favorites defeated the Norwood Blues 8 to 2, pounding Wood, ex-Covington Federal. The features of the game were the pitching of Gerkan and hitting of Stormes. The score:

Favorites	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	6	*-8
Norwood Blues	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	-2

Two-base Hit—Kline. Three-base Hit—Moran. Struck Out—By Gerkan 9, by Wood 7. Passed Balls—Smith 2. Wild Pitch—Wood. Bases on Balls—By Gerkan 3, by Wood 3. Time—1:45. Umpire—Wise.

BATESVILLE TO SEE THE NORWOOD BLUES

The strong Norwood Blues will be the attraction at Batesville, Ind., this afternoon. With several additions to the line-up Manager Sturzel of the Blues now has an aggregation of young players that will compare with any nine in this vicinity. "Smoke" Woods, the local twirler late of the Covington Federal team, is pitching in superb form, and with the team fielding and hitting the way it is now the Batesville fans are assured of an exhibition rarely seen in that part of the country.

Sturzel is aware of the ability of the Hoosier nine and will have his boys on the jump from the word "go." The Blues lost several hard games early in the season by one run, and it is now the aim of the club to make up for lost time and again hang up a record such as that of last year.

Any out-of-town club wishing a strong attraction will do well by writing Joe Kolling, Norwood Blues Club, Norwood, O.

ON THE RIDERS.

Rough Riders To Play Covington Blues

For the first time this season the Rough Riders play at their old home lot, on Fifth-st., Newport, Sunday, when they play Billy Drees and Chic Waters' Covington Blues. The Riders have an excellent team this year, as their line-up will show, namely: Binder p, Dushman c, Bill Bardo 1b, John Bardo 2b, Arnzen ss, "Pepper" King 3b, Holihan lf, Meyers or Russell cf, and Winterman rf. Woods and Schweinefus will work for the Covington Blues.

QUEEN CITY LEAGUE.

Doyle 6, Oakley 3.

Oakley's chances for the pennant went glimmering yesterday, when Doyle hit Walman hard and won rather easily 6 to 3. Score:
