Memphis Ballplayer in Court After Auto Hits Wagon

Clifford Yockey, 29, of 19 W. Daniels-st, infielder on the Memphis (Tenn.) baseball team, was in Municipal Court as the result of hitting and overturning a National Biscuit Co. wagon, at Vine and Thill streets, Friday.

Charges of reckless driving and unlawful possession of liquor were placed against Yockey. George Fuerst and William Hochstuhl, patrolmen, alleged Yockey removed a gallon jug of wine from his auto after the crash and placed it in a yard.

The driver, Albert Lonaker, 2201 Gest-st, and his horse were bruised.

A SIDELIGHT OF THE GAME

Saturday was the presentation of a victory medal to Cliff Yockey by the United States marines of this city. Yockey was a marine during the war and was a sergeant. Under him was none other than the redoubtable J. L. Ray, otherwise known as "Big Steve." It was because of the fact that he was able to hold Mr. Ray in check that he was awarded the victory medal. This was considered the greatest feat of the entire war.
