smashing for Holmes' men did smile mightily, the fences being in serious danger.

Bert Jones made his first appearance in a Saginaw uniform on the local lot and worked to advantage. The former Adrian boxman gave a mere half dozen bingles and the only time the Crickets threatened was when they scored their tallies in the second. No one got beyond second in any of the other sessions.

Carpenter made an impressive start for the visitors, going good for three innings but then came the deluge.
