major and minor leagues.

Lou Scoffie, outfielder at Houston last year, and Nick Cullop are both proven swatsmiths but they'll get strong opposition. Cullop amassed a total of 57 homers for Minneapolis in 1930—and he was sold to Cincinnati six weeks before the season closed. In the rookie competition are included Chester Wieczorek, a .370 hitter from Portsmouth; Eugene Nafie, .353 hitter from Shelby, and Robert Joratz

Bufs Cut Three Players Off List

HOUSTON, April 14.—(P)—The Houston Buffs cut three promising young players from their roster before they left for Beaumont this morning to meet the Exporters.

Chet Wieczorek, outfielder, was sold to Sacramento in the Pacific coast league. Outfielder Gene Nafie and Infielder Bob Anderson were sent to Kilgore in the East Texas league on a quick-recall option. Nafie came up from Gastonia, N. C., and Anderson from Springfield, Mo.

Zorek, who played for Houston on opening Day, was sent to Sacramento the next day.
