Decatur Daily Republican (July 23, 1887)

Manager Lucas has received word from Peoria to the effect that Manager Flynn of that city has signed Jack O'Brien and Mic Burquin. Both are base ball players of high reputation.	And the Journal says that "the Peoria ball team is now strengthened by the signing of George Nulton, a catcher of note. This makes eight men signed. They are Bartson, Burquin, O'Brien, Schwartz, Harter, Turner, Roberts, and the new man. The managers are also corresponding with the veteran 'Trick' McSorley. 'Trick' made a great second base and batting record last season, and led the Western League. He is an old-time Peorian and a good third baseman. Callender, the Decatur pitcher, also thinks of coming to Peoria, and that will make two excellent batteries. Harter is a catcher, the same who caught Kennedy with the Keokuk nine.

Burquin, the former short stop for Peoria and who led the Central Interstate league in that position, has been signed by Manager Lucas and will play third base today.

There was the closest playing up to the seventh inning when Corbett of the St. Pauls was allowed to score on a ball thrown by Kemmler to put him out stealing third but which Burquin, the new third baseman muffed and let go by him. The eighth inning came and neither side scored. In the ninth,

Quad City Times (Sept 26, 1888)

Messrs Klopf and Burquin, the base ball players left for Peoria this morning. Klopf is likely to play with the Omahas next session.

HOW IT LOOKS NINETY MILES OFF
 The Peoria Transcript of yesterday morning says.
 [Burquin is back from Davenport. That club disbanded, paying about 30 cents on the dollar of salaries to players. W. H. Lucas, manager of the Davenport team, says that the city opposite Rock Island will be in the Central Interstate League again next year. It is not probable that Lucas will manage the team, as his management got the stockholders into a pretty bad box this fall.

Burquin, who covered third base for the Sterling club during Dallas' administration, and who had promised to return from Fort Madison, Ia., and re-fill the place, providing money was forwarded him on which to return, endeavored to play a sneak game by retaining the money and not come back, but an emphatic letter from Mr. Clark, in which he threatened to send Fitzgerald and the entire city council after him, unless he ante up or come immediately, succeeded in producing a check Sunday morning for the desired amount—$34.85.

Sterling Standard September 5, 1889

—No more base ball games will be played here by professionals this season. The weather has become so cool that base ball is not profitable any longer this year, so the club has quit playing. The association released the club about a week ago, and the members of the club voted to play for a week or two on their own responsibility, but owing to the Arctic state of the atmosphere, they voted yesterday to quit. They all left for their homes last evening. The Galesburg club also departed. Of the Sterling team, Poole goes to Denver, Dowd to Hastings, Zeis, Olson, Browner and Rispin to Rock Island, Pender to New Orleans, Smith to New York and Burquin to Peoria. The association gained lots of experience about professional ball playing, but reaped very little profit. Probably next year the base ball club can be organized and managed on a more paying basis.

The Cedar Rapids Gazette August 22, 1890

There has been some uneasiness expressed by various persons interested in the Green Bay Base Ball association concerning team that would be put in the field to battle for the championship. Little or nothing has been said of the team or players for various reasons, but now the list is complete and President Murphy submitted it to a GAZETTE representative yesterday. The team is made up as follows:

Manager and captain, Thos. Murray, of Indianapolis, Ind., who will cover third base; catchers, Thos. Mullen of Green Bay and Ed. Boreland, of Erie, Penn.; pitchers, W. F. Augustine, of Menasha, Wis., and Ed. Walsliger, Milwaukee; first base, Richard Parle, Dauville, Ill.; second base, J. H. Mackey, Brooklyn, New York; short stop, Harry Burquin, Peoria, Ill.; field, Jos. Broderick and Ed. Donovan. One of the spare catchers or pitchers will play the other field.

tations. Corbett was one of Haute's best players in their league of two years ago, and is a good man on the infield. The position of shortstop will be given to Harry Burquin, of this city, who signed with Evansville last week. Burquin played with Evansville in the Kentucky-Indiana league last season and is a steady, reliable player. Third base will be held down by popular Joe Burke, of Cincinnati. Burke, like Ryan, played in the Southern league with Evansville, and has numerous admirers in the base ball circles of

Good Men Secured For the Game With Mt. Vernon

Managers Burquin and Miller have completed the line-up for the Princeton ball team which is to play Mt. Vernon next Sunday. The managers are pretty sure that the line-up embodies a team stronger than ever made up on Gibson county soil before and the general supposition is that the Mt. Vernon team will be sadly defeated. The line-up is as follows:

Whether Princeton is to have a ball park depends upon what success the collecting committee has in the next day or two. From the present indications the outlook for the base ball enterprise is not at all flattering.

The collecting committee, composed of George Miller and Harry Burquin, have been working diligently to raise the money which was subscribed a short time ago. In some instances they are meeting with success, but as

The indications are now that the base ball season for Princeton is nearing an end. The management announced this morning that the team had disbanded indefinitely.

Manager Burquin was seen by a CLARION-NEWS reporter this morning and he said: "The management has decided to abandon the enterprise from the fact that nothing can be made at it. We have lost money in every game we have played this season and it looks useless to go ahead. We do not believe the people appreciate it, hence our action in the matter."

PRINCETON WILL HAVE TEAM

Fans of That Hustling Town Secures a Good Manager

(Special to The Courier.)

PRINCETON, Ind., May 31.—Princeton is soon to have a first class ball team. Harry Burquin, has been chosen as manager and for the past few days he has been engaged in selecting a club of good players from local timber. He announces that he will soon have one of the best teams ever organized here.

Mr. Burquin has written the manager of the Athletic club of Evansville asking for a game on the ninth and tenth of June. If possible a date will be made with Poseyville for June 18. The team will go to Huntingburg June 19 for a game with the team there.

Funds to purchase suits, balls and bats are being raised by selling tickets to the opening game at one dollar each.

Harry Burquin will place an independent team in Princeton, Ind. The Sunday games will be played at Haubstadt, Ind.

Evansville Courier and Press (April 16, 1904)

Harry Burquin says there'll be a ball team here shortly. And Harry knows more about that than anybody. He says he can't let the season pass without some effort in the base ball line.

NEW MANAGER

"Dutch" Miller Takes Charge of the Princeton Ball Team.

The Princeton base ball team is now under new management. "Dutch" Miller is the new manager, superceding Harry Burquin.

The organization is to be operated under the co-operative plan with the players, which is thought will prove more satisfactory. It is likely that most of the players will remain with the team, although a few changes will be made.

Princeton Daily Clarion July 18, 1904

A feature of the game was the caving in of the bleachers, which let down 75 fans in the midst of their enthusiasm. There was no one hurt by the accident.

Manager Burquin is trying to arrange for a ball game with the Mt. Carmel Indians to be played here some time this week.

"Play Ball!"

The first game of base ball to be played this season by the Brainerd nine will take place on Sunday afternoon at the new grounds near the power house, at which time they will cross bats with the St. Paul Picketts, which latter team is said to be the best amateur nine in the Twin Cities. The new grounds are in first-class shape, the grand stand and fence having been completed this week. The arrangement of the grand stand is such that the spectators can view the game from the rear of the catcher, a wire netting having been so arranged as to stop the foul balls which otherwise would disturb those who occupy the grand stand seats. The price of admission to the grounds will be 25 cents, and 10 cents extra for grand stand seats, and 10 cents for children. As near as can be ascertained the Brainerd boys will line up on the diamond as follows:

Game will be called at 3:30 sharp.

Brainerd (Minn.) Dispatch May 10, 1895

ing at Duruth.

It is reported that Harry Stewart, quite a notorious character in these parts, is making an effort to purchase Burquin's interest as manager of the St. Peter Base Ball Club.

The St. Peter Independent says that the St. Peter baseball club is a thing of the past. The club has disbanded and many of the players have secured positions with other clubs. Berg has joined the Austin team, Ploof and Quinn went to Marquette, Michigan; Wilner to Austin and Page and Comisky to Crookston. Manager Burquin has not made a financial success out of the enterprise.

Not sure if this is Harry Burquin... I suspect not
