washingtons, for which he receives $300 a month.
Stafford will pitch this morning, and at the afternoon game a new man, Edward Cassian, will occupy the box, and Joseph Start will play first base.

The Omaha Team.

Secretary Worley, of the Omaha club, speaks highly of the prospects there for base ball next season, and has the following to say in regard to their next season's team:

We are especially strong in the box with Lovett, Burdick, Flynn and Cassian. I consider Lovett second to no pitcher in the Association, while if Flynn has recovered the use of his arm, as he thinks he has, he will make a very effective pitcher for us. Flynn is not only a fine pitcher, but is a great hitter. Our team is in a great measure made up from the champion Oshkosh team of 1887. Our infield will be O'Connell, first base; Miller, second base; Doran, third base and Walsh, shortstop. In the outfield we will have Burns, left field; Annis, (of last year's Newark) center field; Messitt, right field, with Campana as a substitute. In looking over the Western Association teams, I think that Des Moines, Kansas City, St. Paul and Omaha are the strongest, but there will not be a really weak team in the Association. We are anxious for the season to begin, and anticipate a great contest for the pennant.

Des Moines Register February 5, 1888

Yesterday at Manawa.

The attendance at Lake Manawa was estimated from fifteen to twenty thousand. At Lake Manawa hotel 150 guests were served with dinner. The Hardins of Omaha and the Council Bluffs team played in the afternoon, the Hardins winning by a score of 15 to 9. Cassian, of the Omahas, pitched for Council Bluffs, and the opinion is freely expressed that he sold the game. The motor line kept its cars running during the day and enjoyed excellent patronage.

Cassian has been released, something that should have occurred six weeks since.

Omaha Daily Bee July 4, 1888

Pitcher Spaulding, of Williams College, reported to Manager Harry Wright yesterday, and at the same time Pitcher Edward Cassian, of the New Britain (Conn.) Club, signed a Philadelphia contract. Spaulding is six feet two inches in height, and has made an enviable record among the college clubs. Cassian is five feet eight inches in height and weighs 160 pounds. He was given a trial yesterday and Manager Wright was much pleased with him. "Phenomenal" Smith and Pitcher Schulze were released by the Philadelphia Club yesterday, because Manager Wright can not use them.

accepted and the date will be fixed soon.

Edward Cassian was admitted to the Emergency Hospital Saturday on application of First Selectman Tryon. Cassian is a great sufferer from rheumatism in his legs. For a number of years he was well known in baseball circles, having played with the Philadelphia Nationals at one time, and later with the Bristol team. He has also played on a number of local teams.
