

Arthur Clarkson
Chicago 1888

Sam Morton yesterday signed Arthur H. Clarkson, brother of John Clarkson, to pitch for the Chicago Western Association Club this season. Arthur pitched for the Portland, Me., club last season, and did creditable work. Schoeneck, who was with the Portlands last year, speaks enthusiastically of him, while the famous twirler of the White Stocking team writes Sam: "Arthur is just as good a pitcher as I am. The only difference is I have a reputation and he has not." Young Clarkson is 22 years old, stands 5 feet 11 inches high, and weighs 165 pounds.

Chicago Tribune March 25, 1888

N

Base-Ball Notes.

Arthur Clarkson has signed with the Lima, O., club.

Pete Gallagher, Nicholson, and W. Coughlin, the pitcher, have signed with Minneapolis.

Buffalo is anxious to secure Dugdale.

Chicago Tribune May 18, 1888