

Roscoe Coughlin
Chicago 1888

anticipate any trouble with the new rules.
President Young has approved the following contracts: With Washington, Fred L. Shaw, William O'Brien and J. B. Donnelly; with New York, M. C. Dorgan and William Brown with St. Louis, D. L. Foutz and R. O. Carruthers; with the New England League, Henry W. Lynch, Henry Visner and W. E. Coughlin; with Indianapolis, Jerry Denny and P. Cahill; with the International League, Duke Jantzen and J. Roschie.
The Philadelphia club has notified Mr.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle March 27, 1887

Base-Ball Notes.
Arthur Clarkson has signed with the Lima, O., club.
Pete Gallagher, Nicholson, and W. Coughlin, the pitcher, have signed with Minneapolis.
Buffalo is anxious to secure Dugdale.

Chicago Tribune May 18, 1888

Coughlin, who pitched for Lynn last season, has accepted an offer with the Chicago Western Association Club.

The Boston Globe May 27, 1888

Rain interfered with the Western Association game that was to have been played yesterday. The Minneapolis team and the Maroons will play their second game this afternoon. The batteries will be Winkleman and Broughton for Minneapolis, Coughlin and Dugdale for the Maroons.

Chicago Tribune June 2, 1888

President Spalding has signed for Chicago W. E. Coughlin, who has been the pitcher of the Oakland team, the champion of the California league.

Montreal Gazette January 17, 1890

COUGHLIN—Died at Chelsea Soldiers' Home, March 20. William E. Coughlin, husband of the late Annie F. Keefe Coughlin, formerly of 23 Belknap st., Arlington. Friends may call at the Sullivan Funeral Home, 22 Fourth st., near Bridge st., Lowell, Wednesday, from 7-10 p. m., and Thursday from 2-5 and 7-10 p. m. Libera will be sung at St. Michael's Church, Lowell, Friday at 10:30 o'clock, with a Solemn High Post Funeral Mass Monday at 9 o'clock. Burial Friday in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Lowell.

Boston Globe March 21, 1951