The organization of the Tyrone base ball club, referred to recently, is now complete, as shown by the following: Catcher, James Dallas; pitcher, H. Zimmerman; first base, John Jones; second base, John Dallas; third base, M. Condrin; short stop, S. Troutwine; left field, H. Dry, centre field, William Shollenberger; right field, M. McOmber. Mr. M. Condrin has been elected secretary. The club organized under such favorable circumstances, and composed of material, is not to be sneezed at, and is ready to receive and accept challenges from any amateur club in the state.

The Philadelphia Club will be well provided for batteries the coming season. Manager Wright has thus far prepared to open the season with six full batteries and an odd pitcher. His pitchers are Ferguson, Daley, Casey and Titcomb, of last season's club; Harvey, of the Quaker City Club; Wayling, of the Charleston (S. C.), team, and Devlin, the left-hander, of last year's New York League and Syracuse Clubs. The catchers are Clements, McGuire and Cusick, of last season's team; Gibson, of Lancaster; Murphy, of Lynn, and Dallas, of Altoona. There has not been much change of men in the in and outfield, which so far remains as it was last year, with McCarthy as extra man.

PLEASD WITH THE PLAN.

—Mr. J. E. Dallas, manager and captain of a professional base ball club which has recently been playing for Monmouth, has signed his club to Sterling for the remainder of the season. He will have ten men here this week, who will begin playing at once. New uniforms have been ordered for the entire club from Spaulding & Co's sporting goods house at Chicago. This club has recently made a tour of different cities of Illinois and in thirty-eight games played has lost but three. Among the cities played with are Springfield, Rockford, Rock Island, Aurora, Dixon, Elgin, Mt. Carroll, Sterling, Davenport, Quincy. Mr. Dallas has been a professional ball-player for years. Last year he was manager of a club at New Orleans, the year before at Dallas, Texas, and in 1886 was connected with the Philadelphia league. The club is a good one, and we may expect some very fine exhibitions of ball playing on the fine sporting grounds. The first games will be played on July 25 and 26, with the Quincy Inter State League Club.

ROCK FALLS.

The Sterling Ball Club.

The city now has the best ball club she ever had, and one which will give the city some prominence abroad. The players are stout strong men who make base ball playing a profession. The club is one which we can have play most any club in the state, without fear of being badly done up. The following is a partial list of the players of the club for the remainder of the season, with a record of the clubs they played in for the past year or two. Manager Dallas is now in Chicago to secure two others.

Dallas, catcher, was with the Phillies in '86 and Omaha in '88 and '89.

Halpin, 1st base, with the Chicago Maroons in '88.

Seering, 2nd base, was with London and Davenport in '89.

Moriarty, right field, was with Davenport in '89.

Dowd, short stop, with Hastings of the Western League, '86 and '87.

Pooler, left field, with Hastings of the Western League, '86 and '87.

Tesch, 3rd base, with St. Louis Whites in '88.

Redmond, pitcher and fielder, with Burlington in '89.

Lookabaugh, pitcher and fielder, with Danville and Pueblo in '89.

AN ORDINANCE

J. E. Dallas, manager of the Monmouth base ball club during the season of 1889, will undoubtedly be given a position as catcher in the Ottawa base ball club this season. He is considered a good player, and a valuable man in a nine. He played with the Philadelphia league team in 1885 and 1886, and with Savannah, Georgia, in 1887.

—Ex-Manager Dallas was called to Iowa on Saturday, from Aurora, and there remains. As a manager he is not quite satisfactory, especially as a financier. Several business men and some of his players would like him to liquidate some of the bills he left. It was mostly his fault that the games can not be played here this week, he having completed no arrangements with the clubs to come here, although he had the games advertised. He is a good manager.

...antage to jump their contracts and go to the Wisconsin league. Quincy drew quite a prize in Al Harten, who handled himself well in the field and latter succeeded Dallas, formerly with Marinette, who was helping out at second, in a manner that was satisfactory to the audience and a credit to himself. Schantz, a local player, helped out the other side, playing right field.

The Quincyys opened the game as
