and will hurt his usefulness for some time.
 Davin, the centre fielder of the Portlands, is a first-class man. Manning thinks he is the finest player in the New England League.
 Sam Wise has played short stop this season.

hit a balicon."
 Davin of the Portlands is a fine fielder, and is not slow as a hitter. He would be another good man for Boston. In 83 games he has an actual batting average of .347. In the field his record is 163 put outs, 25 assists, 18 errors, an average of .912. In long hits he has 21 doubles, 4 three-baggers and 2 home runs. He has made 31 ghost hits.

David J. Davin.

David J. Davin, centre-fielder, was born in New York city and raised in Hoboken, N. J. He is 29 years old, 5 feet 7 1/2 inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. This is his first season of professional ball-playing. He played first base on the Jaspers of Manhattan college, as long ago as 1872. For the past three or four years he has played on the Hobokens and Jersey Blues, covering first base and pitching. He has played centre field on the Portlands all the season, pitching part of a game on several occasions. He is one of the most brilliant centre-fielders in the country, accomplishing the most difficult and brilliant fly catches and covering a large amount of ground. He is a heavy hitter, and for a time led the New England League at the bat. He is only a fair base runner.

Louis N. Schoenack.

Des Moines Register January 22, 1888

DAVIN, the center fielder of the Milwaukeees, recently released on account of drunkenness, was in such financial straits when his career as a ball player was cut short, that the members of the club took up a collection among themselves to help him and his wife and child.
