Relating to the players for the Lyndales

The Lyndales filled in for the Minneapolis club on August 15, 1888 against Kansas City.

but was poorly supported all over, except behind the bat. The Lelands didn't do themselves justice at all, their fumbles and muffs being decidedly laughable at times. The game was without features. Score:

Old-time Player Here. There is a man in town who has been shaking hands with everybody ever since he arrived, who recalls the first really fast baseball team that was ever played in British Columbia. He is Mr. Joseph McCrum of Kamloops, a railway conductor on the C. P. R., just now, who is down for his holidays. Mr. McCrum was a member of that famous Kamloops baseball team that the people in the inland capital brought to British Columbia in 1890 or thereabouts, and played about as fast a shortstop game as is put up anywhere even now. Joe, too, could go some behind the bat, and was an exceptionally fast man on the bases. Kamloops got baseball mad one year, and held a tournament. Donald entered and imported Frank March, the afterward famous pitcher for Tacoma, and then umpire, to help out. March came to Kamloops, but the Amities of Victoria beat Donald out, principally because there was no one to hold March. The next year Kamloops had March, and with March was practically the whole of a semi-professional team from Minneapolis, called the Lyndales, after Lyndale avenue in that city, where the players lived. Charles H. Watson, af-	players lived. Charles H. Watson, afterward leader of the band in Westminster, was catcher; Schoonmaker first baseman; Hank Hearn played on second; Jack Herchimer on third; McCrum held things down at short, succeeding Chesley, who had played the year before. Armstrong was in the field, with two others who were as good as the rest. The Kamloops team came to Vancouver for a First of July celebration, and defeated the Amities by 14 to 1, and that lonely run that Victoria got was obtained by Fred Jackson of Victoria batting a little fly into the crowd where the fielders could not reach it. The upcountry team continued its tour, and defeated everything it went against. With Herchimer and McCrum as battery Port Townsend was sent down the line for 3 to 2. The next day, with all kinds of money bet on the result, Port Townsend got it rubbed in harder to the tune of 6 to 0. Victoria was again defeated on the return trip, and the tour ended because there was not a team on the coast left that would take a chance against the visitors. Mr. McCrum is a prominent Knight of Pythias, and used to be famous as an all-round athlete and step-dancer. Wants Lucas to Coach

GOING TO BOZEMAN.

Four Popular Local Semi-Professionals to Play There this Year.

During the coming week Pitcher Gibbs, Catcher Sid Adams, Second Baseman Henry Hearn and Shortstop Watson, well-known local semi-professionals, will go to Bozeman, Mont., where they will play ball this season. All have excellent reputations all through the northwest. This is especially true of Hearn who captained the Fargo, St. Cloud and Palace teams last season. Professionals who have seen him play pronounce him good enough to keep his end up in any league. He came very near to being signed by both the Western league and the Eastern league this season. A great plenty of older and more experienced talent crowded him out. He is a first-class baseman, a good base runner and rattling good hitter. He will captain the Bozeman team this season. Bozeman belongs to the Montana league, which is said to be a thoroughly organized league.

The Fosters' Opening Games.

The Fosters will open their season at Eau Claire, Wis., tomorrow by playing two games. They leave for Eau Claire at 8 o'clock tonight. The following players will go for this trip: Adams, C.; Thielan and Gibbs, pitchers; Nash, 1b.; Hearn, 2b.; De Leuw, 3b.; Wason, s. s.; Dickinson, l. f.; Stockdale, c. f., and Williamson, r. f. The Fosters will meet Stillwater next week.

Henry Hearn Comes Home.

Henry Hearn, the well-known local ball player, returned from Montana yesterday. During the first season he was captain of the Bozeman team. During the last half of the season he played right field under Jim Powell, the old Sioux City manager and captain. During the first season Hearn led the league in fielding and batting. He left the Butte team because of the smoke from the smelters, which was ruining every ball player in the club. Hearn has an offer from Anson for next year, and will likely accept. He also has an offer from Cincinnati, but he prefers to play ball under Anson. He will remain here this winter. Hearn is one of the most promising young ball players in the country.

Base Ball.
 The following persons have been signed as players in Bozeman's base ball team for this season: J. W. Gibbs, who is known in the East by the suggestive title, "Cyclone," pitcher; Greely W. Bentley, of California, who did such splendid work against the Missoula last fall, also pitcher; George Shultz, of Diamond Island, New York, short stop and pitcher; A. Place, center field; Charles Porter, first and third base; S. K. Adams, catcher; F. Visner, of national league fame, catcher; Henry Hearn, second base. He is said to be one of the finest second basemen in the Northwest. James F. Keown, outfielder; Sol Cox, first base and short stop; C. D. Lyons, pitcher and infielder; Maurice Ives, of the Madison, Wisconsin college team, infielder; Andy Stranahan, infielder; At. Flanders, infielder; Fred Osborn, catcher and infielder. The above are signed to report for duty on May 1. Beatty, being engaged with a California team, will not be here until the 8th. The grounds on up and the race from this time on will be an exciting one. Helena has signed Darby, the great pitcher formerly with Omaha, and who was reported to have signed with Rochester in the Eastern league, and expects to win the pennant with him. Butte has signed Hank Hearn, who covered second for Bozeman, but will only keep him for a short time and will play him in the outfield. What the Butte team needs is a first class pitcher and one will probably be secured before long. Missoula and Philipsburg are both after new men and expect to have them inside of a week.

"Yohnny Yohnson."

A fair audience assembled at Normanna hall last night to witness the first production of "Yohnny Yohnson." This play was written by Dr. C. Wm. Backman, of Minneapolis, who also had it copyrighted. The cast last night was made up of professionals and amateurs, the following taking the principal parts: Dr. C. Wm. Backman, Ben Johnson (of the Flambeau club), Harold Willett, Frank Willis, Henry Hearn, Mrs. F. A. Borne, Mrs. Cornell, Miss Edith Hewet and Miss Ina Carleton. The presentation of the play was well received by the audience. It is doubtful whether the play has the merits as an original production to bring it into prominence. Special mention might be made of Mrs. F. A. Borne and Dr. C. Wm. Backman as showing real dramatic ability.
