Chattanooga to Play Birmingham To-day—Some Notes of Interest.

Saturday night the Chattanooga ball team left for Birmingham in response to a challenge to play the team of that city yesterday and today. Eddie Kent took charge of the boys, having with him Buck Ford for pitcher, Abe Litz catcher, Will Litz first baseman, Walter Lauter center fielder and other local ball players. The game will come off today, no game having been played yesterday. The boys expect to win from the Magic City team and bring home the laurels. A return game will probably be played in this city in a short time.

New Base Ball Team.

A strong local ball team has been organized under the name of the Laps G. Walkers, to play any amateur team in any of our neighboring cities, composed of the following members:

Walter Lauter, c. f.; John Litz, s. s.; George Wingfield, r. f.; Buck Ford, p.; Arthur Doty, l. f.; Alf. Handman, 1b.; George Seiters, c.; Abe Litz, 2b.; Will Freeman, 3b.

This team will play the Trenton, Ga., team today week, on the old park grounds, and by that time they will be in great shape. The game will be witnessed by a large number of spectators, as the Trenton boys are a strong set.

Prominent among the professionals of this city are Lawrence and Walter Ford and Abe Litz, who left last night for Denver, Col., where they have signed for the season with the Denver nines of the Western league. Lawrence will hold his customary position behind the bat; Walter will continue to puzzle the "profession" with his most excellent curves and shoots, and Abe will hold second base. In the departments assigned to these three men, each is proficient, and will prove equal to the emergency.

The three men who have left are not without records by any means.

Abe Litz, who has for the past year been one of the most popular city fire boys, played with the Terre Haute league nine in the season of '84, with the Goldsborough, N. C., nine in '85 and with the Johnstown, Pa., team during the season of '86. He is regarded as a No. 1 second baseman, and has always commanded a good salary.

Lawrence Ford has caught for many of
