tive pitcher is a good batter. His only fault is in hitting batsmen, and the opposing teams in the Inter-State League were afraid of him.
 The Daytonians have signed McCauley, the left-handed pitcher of the Terre Haute team in Matis' place. Manager Gooding of the Munciepolis nine will arrive in the morning to sign the papers. While selling a majority of the stock, he retains a good slice, and will be engaged as assistant manager. It is proposed by Manager Lucas to combine the best players of the two clubs and form a nine able to hold its own with the leaders of the Western
