Today the South Bend nine will play in this city and the Kalamazoo club will play the following nine: J. Nicholson, G. Fife, W. Doyle, O. G. Hungerford, F. Lyons, C. L. Park, J. Hycoop, John Whalen and Rodgers.

Gleanings Concerning the Players Who are Known Here.

Geo. Fife, who caught here last season and made many friends during his stay here, has signed with the Hastings, Neb., western league club. He wanted $100 a month to come here and probably gets that amount there.

Nicholson's price to play ball here was $125 a month. He is now considering an offer from Hastings. He is a good pitcher as all here know, but he wants too big money.

Kalamazoo Gazette Jan 23, 1887

The Hastings, Nebraska Daily Gazette thus speaks of Nicholson, who played with the Kalamazoo club last season which shows that the new rules do not knock him out: Nicholson pitched his first game for the Hastings and made a record of which many older pitchers might well be proud. He was at bat five times made four runs, three hits with a total of four bases, twelve assists and struck out three of Lincoln's best hitters, Manager Rowe himself being among the number.

Signed by Chicago Maroons (Western Association) for 1888

On Old Judge baseball card w/ Maroons

Sam Morton has signed Eugene Moriarity and J. M. Nicholson for the Chicago Western Association team. Moriarity is a right fielder. He was with the Bostons in 1883. In 1886 he was in the Southern League. Last season he played with the La Crosse club. Nicholson is the Chicago boy who pitched for the Hastings, Minn., team this year.

have required far worse umpiring than even his to have turned the game. Minneapolis put in Pitcher Nicholson, who was released by Chicago without a trial, and it was intensely annoying to the Wicked City aggregation to observe the ease with which he baffled their heaviest hitters. Four clean hits were made off his delivery, but no two of them were consecutive and they yielded no runs. Minneapolis got the same number of hits from Sprague, but they bunched them, and Sprague's wildness, aided by errors in the field, gave two of the four Nicholson, the new pitcher for the home team, played last year in the Western league. He signed this spring with the Chicago Maroons, but was released on account of the club having too many players.

New Ball Grounds Dedicated.
KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 3.—[Special.]—Ramona Park, the best base-ball grounds in Michigan, was dedicated by the Kalamazoo and Jackson Tri-State League teams in the presence of a large crowd today. Nicholson, late of the Chicago Maroons, pitched a fair trial game for the Kalamazoos, but his support was somewhat ragged, most of the team playing in new positions. Phalen and Miller were the battery for Jackson.
