Relating to the players for the Lyndales

The Lyndales filled in for the Minneapolis club on August 15, 1888 against Kansas City.

Known to play for Lyndales in 1888 and early 1889, Kamloops in 1889

Possibly with Port Townsend (WA) in 1890

but was poorly supported all over, except behind the bat. The Lelands didn't do themselves justice at all, their fumbles and muffs being decidedly laughable at times. The game was without features. Score:

Old-time Player Here.

There is a man in town who has been shaking hands with everybody ever since he arrived, who recalls the first really fast baseball team that was ever played in British Columbia. He is Mr. Joseph McCrum of Kamloops, a railway conductor on the C. P. R., just now, who is down for his holidays.

Mr. McCrum was a member of that famous Kamloops baseball team that the people in the inland capital brought to British Columbia in 1890 or thereabouts, and played about as fast a shortstop game as is put up anywhere even now. Joe, too, could go some behind the bat, and was an exceptionally fast man on the bases. Kamloops got baseball mad one year, and held a tournament. Donald entered and imported Frank March, the afterward famous pitcher for Tacoma, and then umpire, to help out. March came to Kamloops, but the Amities of Victoria beat Donald out, principally because there was no one to hold March. The next year Kamloops had March, and with March was practically the whole of a semi-professional team from Minneapolis, called the Lyndales, after Lyndale avenue in that city, where the players lived. Charles H. Watson, af-players lived. Charles H. Watson, afterward leader of the band in Westminster, was catcher; Schoonmaker first baseman; Hank Hearn played on second; Jack Herchimer on third; McCrum held things down at short, succeeding Chesley, who had played the year before. Armstrong was in the field, with two others who were as good as the rest. The Kamloops team came to Vancouver for a First of July celebration, and defeated the Amities by 14 to 1, and that lonely run that Victoria got was obtained by Fred. Jackson of Victoria batting a little fly into the crowd where the fielders could not reach it. The upcountry team continued its tour, and defeated everything it went against. With Herchimer and McCrum as battery Port Townsend was sent down the line for 3 to 2. The next day, with all kinds of money bet on the result, Port Townsend got it rubbed in harder to the tune of 6 to 0. Victoria was again defeated on the return trip, and the tour ended because there was not a team on the coast left that would take a chance against the visitors.

Mr. McCrum is a prominent Knight of Pythias, and used to be famous as an all-round athlete and step-dancer.

BASEBALL MATCH.

The Champions Badly Downed by Professional Players.

The result of the game between Kamloops and Victoria was a surprise to our citizens. The Kamloops nine were composed, principally, of imported players from Minneapolis and the ground was most unfavorable for the Amities, who were used to Beacon Hill. Marsh, the Kamloops pitcher, was a great deal better than he was last year, and was assisted by his regular catcher, C. Watson, Marsh also made three runs for the winning side. Gus Gowen and C. N. Gowen made two fine catches. The only run on the Amity side was made by Fred Jackson. The following is the official score:

A representative of the SENTINEL on inquiring of Mr. C. H. Watson what the prospects were for the coming season, received the brusque reply: "We're going to have a little bit the gayest, swiftest team that ever played in this part of the country,
 and just tell them that the 'Old man' said
 so. I tell you March is pitching stronger than he ever did before, and now that I have taken on a little more adipose tissue I think I can stand the exercise," etc.

Baseball at Port Townsend.
PORT TOWNSEND, May 27.—Much interest is being taken in the game of baseball to be played here tomorrow between the Spokanes and Townsends. Considerable money is being put up, with odds on the Spokanes. Following is the batting order of the Townsends: Boynton, third base; Orear, second base, Huber, left field; Lange, catcher; Schoonmaker, right field; Nolan, shortstop; Sisley, center field, Pendergast, first base; Pardee, pitcher.

(By The Star's Own Service.)
HOLTON, Kas., March 8.—Word was received here today of the death yesterday in Topeka of Mrs. Katherine Drake Schoonmaker, 63, owner of a 1,500-acre cattle and hog ranch near here.
 Born of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Drake, in Jackson County, Kansas, Mrs. Schoonmaker was married to Dr. Edward Schoonmaker. After the death of her husband twenty-five years ago, Mrs. Schoonmaker established her ranch, and operated it until she became ill about a month ago. She died at the home of a sister, Mrs. Margaret Buckner, Topeka.

FORMER OWEGO MAN
 SUCCUMBS IN TEXAS

Owego, Sept. 24.—Dr. Edward C. Schoonmaker committed suicide at his home at Mercedus, Texas, one Sunday afternoon recently.

He was born in Owego and was 44 years old. He removed to Minneapolis when a young man. He studied medicine and was graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1899. He afterward spent two years in Alaska. Then he entered a hospital at Rochester, Minn., as an assistant surgeon. Several years afterward he went to Minneapolis, where he practiced medicine. Five years ago he removed to Mercedus, Texas, where he had a large practice until his death. He was considered one of the most efficient and capable surgeons in the state.

AS SHE FEELS THAT THE DEFENDANT WILL carry his threats into execution, A. R. Schoonmaker is the plaintiff and Jessie Schoonmaker the defendant in the second divorce suit. The couple were married in Livingston, Mont., in September, 1889, and when the wife went into her new home she found there two step-children who owed their origin to a former marriage of her husband. If the assertions made in the complaint are true, the wife soon grew tired of the presence of these children in the house and proceeded to make life a burden for them. When her husband remonstrated with her she turned on him and demonstrated her ability to take care of herself in a fight. Matters went from bad to worse until April 30 last, when the wife decided to leave and accordingly went to Chicago. She refuses to have anything to do with her husband or his children and the suit for divorce is the result.
