Fremont 4, Jackson 1.
FREMONT, O., August 2—[Special]—Two thousand people were at Pastime Park to day, to witness the game between the Jacksons, of the Tri-State League and Fremont. Fremont's features were Wilson's pitching Henman's center fielding and the two Mannigans' catching and second-base play. The Jacksons' were Welch's center fielding, Miller's short stopping and Phalen's pitching. Wilson, pitcher of the Fremonts has signed with Milwaukee, of the Northwestern League, and expects to leave for there Tuesday next.

ought to prove beneficial.

The latest addition to the team is a pitcher named Wilson, whom Hart picked up in Ohio and who is said to be a remarkably good man. He is to report either to-day or to-morrow and will be given a trial at an early date.

A Fremont paper has the following to say of Wilson, Hart's new pitcher: Manager Bert Wilson, who has done such great work for the home nine, left Tuesday morning for Milwaukee, having, as stated last week, accepted a position with the club of that city. Mr. Wilson is a gentleman in every respect and is a valuable acquisition to any club. During his stay in this city he made many friends, all of whom wish him success. Before leaving, his admirers presented him a purse which was raised by subscription, and a box of cigars.

MILWAUKEE IN APPLETON.

Special Dispatch to the Sentinel.

APPLETON, Sept. 24.—To-day's game with Milwaukee was close and exciting. The Milwaukeees did not gauge Lunt till the ninth inning when they bunched five hits and won the game. The fielding on both sides was excellent with few errors. Batteries: Appleton, Lunt and Coffin; Milwaukee, Wilson and Fuller. Following is the score by innings:

Milwaukee.....	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	1	5—8
Appleton	2	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	1—5

Dayton's western boy, Bert Wilson, signed as a pitcher is one of the most promising of young pitchers. His work in the Fremont, Ohio, team last year attracted general attention, and the Dayton management did not secure him a moment too soon.

Bert Wilson, the young pitcher from Washington Territory, signed by Dayton, will probably be released from his contract, as he desires to go into other business. The management is sorry to let him go, as he made an excellent record last year with the Free-monts, but they hope to make his loss good by signing "Nick" Handiboe of Columbus. Handiboe has played in

MANSFIELD CLUB AFFAIRS.
MANSFIELD, March 13.—[Special.]—The local base ball club is without a manager. Bert Wilson, the young Washington (Ia.) pitcher who had been signed, left for home yesterday, having concluded to work for his father, who is state secretary of the ancient order of United Workmen in Iowa. Wilson complained of being homesick and it is thought this influenced his decision to resign. His resignation was not accepted and his contract as a player will restrain him from playing anywhere else. Another manager will be secured in a day or two.

New Manager For Mansfield.
SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE ENQUIRER.
MANSFIELD, OHIO, March 15.—Bert Wilson, having resigned as manager of the Mansfield Club for the coming season, the Directors to-day signed Chris Meisel, of Newark, N. J., who successfully managed the club in that city last season.

"Ducky" Thomas, Dayton's young pitcher, one of the most promising in this part of the country, will probably be found with the Dayton team next year.
Effort is being put forth to obtain as his side partner, Bert Wilson, of Washington Territory, who pitched for the Freemont, Ohio, club last season. He has a good record as a puzzling twirler, and will be a worthy acquisition to the red stockings.

A Dayton dispatch says: The Dayton Base Ball Club has signed Bert Wilson, of Washington, Iowa, and Duckie Thomas, of this city, as pitchers, and Joseph Berk of the Altoona team.

Canton Repository Dec 12, 1889

At a recent meeting of the Dayton Base Ball Association the following officers were elected: Samuel Wagner, president and treasurer, Ed. Welch, vice president; T. D. Donavan, secretary and manager. The club has nearly enough funds subscribed and the following players have been signed: Pitchers, H. Wilson, Stapleton, Bert Wilson and W. Thursby; catcher, C. Williams; first base, J. Berke; second base, Paddy Lyons; T. Brewer, short stop; third base, Niles; left field, Randall; center field, Gans. Williams, Lyons, Randall and Gans played with Dayton last season, while Niles and Brewer played with Hamilton.

Pitcher Bert Wilson, who made quite a record with the Cedar Rapids team last year, is once more added to their list. Anything to pull them out of the hole.

Rockford IL Daily Register-Gazette Jun 24, 1891

Robert Wilson, brother of John Wilson, of this city, and living near Letts, was severely hurt in a runaway Saturday. He had been to Muscatine and was on his way home, having stopped in Letts to get his mail, and was getting into the wagon again when the team started on the run, throwing Mr. Wilson down in front of the wheels, which passed over his body. His collar bone was broken and a severe scalp wound was received, besides being generally bruised up. At the latest report he was resting very easy.

Muscatine (IA) Journal May 21, 1894

The Muscatine friends of Hon. Chas. H. Wilson, of Washington, Iowa, will regret to learn that his son Bert, aged 28 years, died on the 28th inst. His funeral will take place at 4 p. m. to-morrow (Wednesday.)

Muscatine (IA) Journal May 28, 1894

Our local base-ballists will deeply mourn the death of "Bert" Wilson, who died at his home in Washington on Monday. The Press says: "He was driven to a ball game a week ago Thursday, and told Bob McCail he did not want to go home, for he would have to go to bed, and once abed he would never get up. That was his first confession of defeat."

Deceased often played on the Muscatine diamond, and at one time held the captaincy of our home nine. His zeal in the service of the Muscatine club, his fairness as an opponent, his geniality as a friend, won for him the respect and admiration of a host in our city. His death appears to have resulted from an operation for fistula two years ago last fall.
